

	Description of service	Article	PDF	About
General Site Analysis
	Space is safe for occupancy and expected patient population	Reopening shuttered hospitals to expand surge capacity	Link: Here Page: 9 & 24-32	This document highlights the interior structural components such as HVAC, Water and Plumbing, Heating, Ventilation, Air conditioning, fire alarm systems for hospitals to maintain life safety.
	Sufficient space for patient care type and anticipate volume	Calculating Occupant load factor	Link: Here Page: 1-3	This fact sheet illustrates the methods necessary for determining occupant load based on NFPA 101®, Life Safety Code®.
	Sufficient space for patient care type and anticipate volume	Reopening shuttered hospitals to expand surge capacity	Link: Here Page: 24-32	This document highlights the interior structural components such as HVAC, Water and Plumbing, Heating, Ventilation, Air conditioning, fire alarm systems for hospitals to maintain life safety.
	Appropriate access to the space and the ability to control access	Risk Management in Healthcare Institutions: Limiting Liability and Enhancing.	Link: Here Page:156-170	A book on the management of safety and security in healthcare institutions.
ADA Provision
	Access ramps or other relevant means of vertical transportation	Modernizing Health Care to Improve Physical Accessibility	Link: Here	This document provides guidelines on how to increase physical accessibility of medical services and tools to assess your practice or facility's accessibility for individuals with disabilities.
	Other mobility access accommodations (e.g. self opening doors)	Modernizing Health Care to Improve Physical Accessibility	Link: Here	This document provides guidelines on how to increase physical accessibility of medical services and tools to assess your practice or facility's accessibility for individuals with disabilities.
	Able to accommodate individuals of size	Accessible Health Care	Link: Here	This fact sheet highlights the regulations providers must provide individuals with disabilities full based Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act require that health care.

	Description of service	Article	PDF	About
Infrastructure
	Adequate space for each patient bed area	Space Standards and Dimensions	Link: Here	This manual and specifically this highlighted section showcases the recommended minimum requirements with consideration needed to allow for the movement of mobile equipment such as trolleys, beds, wheelchairs, motorized carts etc.
	Door widths can accommodate patient care equipment	2018 Guidelines for Design and Construction of Hospitals*	Link: Here	This 2018 manual provides the infrastructure minimum requirements for doors in hospitals.
	Capability to distance workspaces in administrative areas OR create separation of staff work areas from patient care areas	Protecting Workers: Guidance on Mitigating and Preventing the Spread of COVID-19 in the Workplace	Link: Here	This guidance contains recommendations as well as descriptions of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA's) mandatory safety and health standards. It also includes mandatory OSHA standards.